CLCON No. 07 of 2003

Hon. Irshad Hussain, J.

Hon.M.M. Ghildiyal, J.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners- applicants.

The contention is that the respondents-authorities have not complied with the order of the court passed on 25.09.2002 in writ petition no. 572 of 2002. It is stated that no order in compliance had yet been passed. Learned counsel submitted that non-passing of the order amounts to the contempt of the court. We do not agree with this submission because as is obvious from the order, the petitioners were directed to be relieved for joining in U.P. as and when practicable. The respondents- authorities were to consider as to when the petitioners were do be relived and if no. decision has been taken, it cannot be said that contempt of the order of court has been made. In view of this, the petition is dismissed in Limine.
